NEEDHAM HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1981

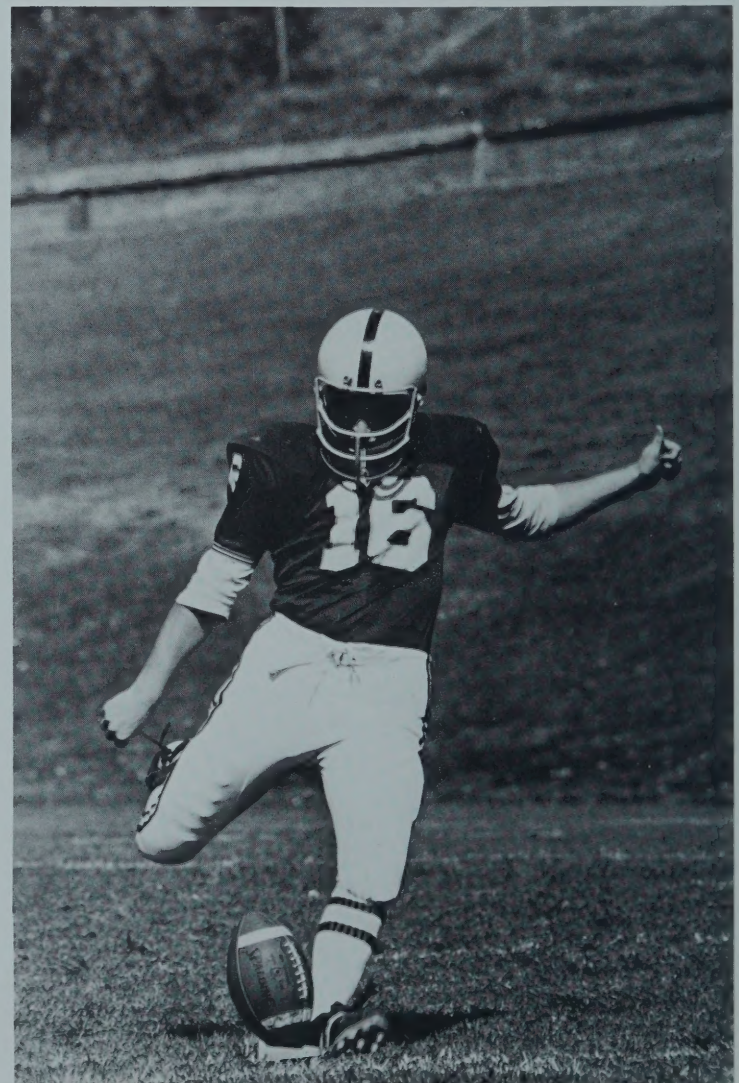

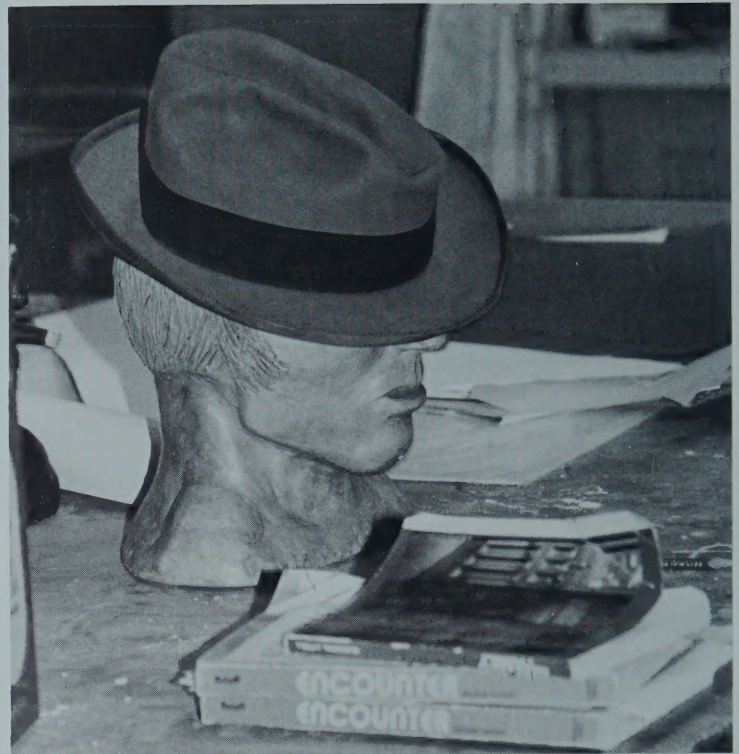

A black and white photograph of an empty classroom. Rows of wooden desks and chairs are arranged in the room, receding into the background. The desks have attached writing surfaces, and the chairs have curved backs. The floor is a light-colored tile. The overall atmosphere is quiet and somewhat somber, fitting the theme of a graduation yearbook.

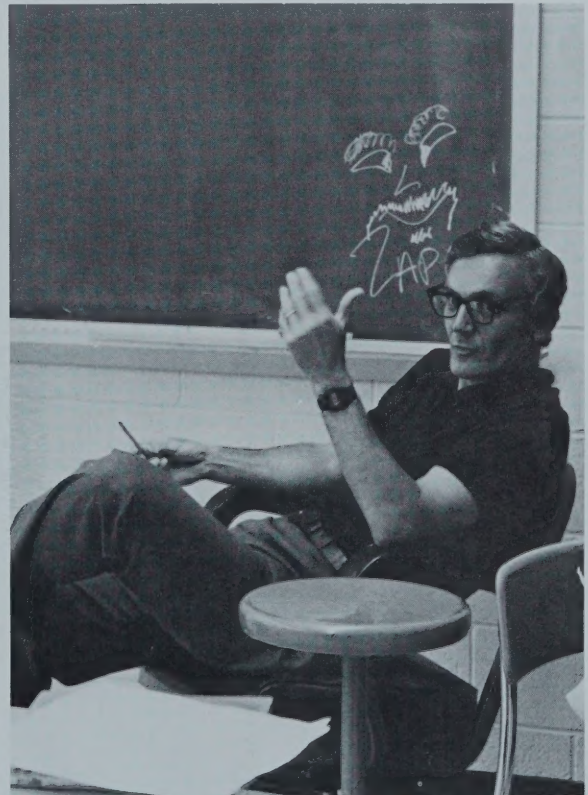

Most endings are not logical.
Many demand recognition,
And some command ceremony.
The moment, however, is not noticed.

A beginning can also be
Quiet: sitting on the hill,
Discussing in September glow
New teachers — new subjects;

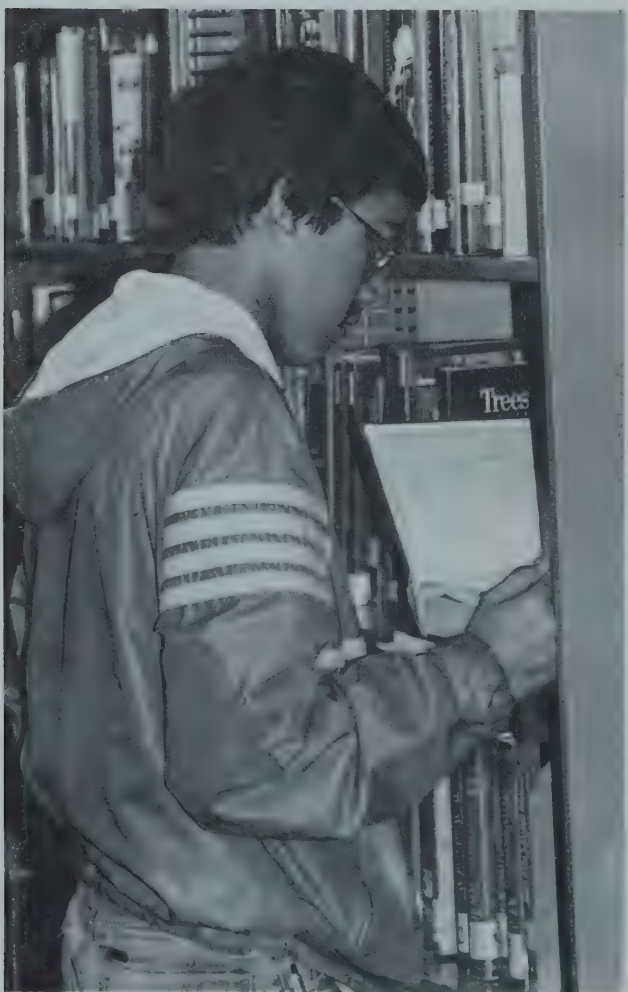

Wondering whether confusion
Is eternal like stars and rain,
Or only a brief companion,
Like a leaf waiting for the wind.

The leaves announce the chronicle
Of years. They move swiftly through School hours, and friendships mint the gold
Of buring leaf and setting sun.

The end is marked by ceremony,
A ragged ritual ending
In the studied grace of formal Separation.

Only the single moment
Is private: experience sharply,
Perhaps grasped sadly, long before
Ritual gowns have folded their farewell.

In that moment the light years are Suddenly perceived as memories;
A sharpness marks the separation
From happy, warm September days.

The formal ending is texture
Of yet another beginning:
Its single moment rests neatly
In the mysterious warp of time.

Different Drums... all in tune.

Each one of us has a different destiny waiting to be fulfilled. Each of us has unique talents and aspirations. And each of you will find your own happiness.

The world is a fascinating, exciting, alive place because each person has different abilities and ambitions. Yet, for all our differences, we're all striving toward a common goal: to make this world a better place.

Everyone marches to a different drum, that's true. But as you reach for YOUR success, make sure that your drumbeat is in harmony with others.

Needham Celebrates the Return of the hostages. January 20, 1981.

Be gentle with yourself.
You are a child of the universe,
no less than the trees and stars;
you have a right to be here.
And whether or not it is clear to you,
the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore, be at peace
and whatever your labors
and aspirations,
in the noisy confusion of life,
keep peace within your soul.
With all its sham and drudgery
and broken dreams,
it is still a beautiful world.
